

Doney Gal

We'll ride the range from - sun to sun, for a cow - boy's - work is - ne - ver
8 done. He's up and gone at the break of day, A
13 driv - in' those do - gies on their wea - ry way.
17 Refrain
RAin or shine, sleet or snow, Me and my Do - ney Gal arebound to go.

2. A cowboy's life is a weary thing,
For it's rope and brand and ride and sing;
Day or night, in the rain or hail,
He'll stay with his dogies along the train Refrain
3. We whoop at the sun and yell through the hail,
But we drive the poor dogies on up the trail;
And we'll laugh at the storms, the sleet and snow
When we camp near the town of San Antonio Refrain
4. Swimming the rivers across our way
We push for the North Stay day by day.
The storm cloud break at furious speed.
We follow the steers in their wild stampede. Refrain
5. Drifting me Doney Gal round and round,
The sleeping steers on the bedding ground.
Riding on night-herd all night long,
Singing them softly a cowboy song. Refrain
