

The Longest Train

$\text{♩} = 104$

The long - est train I ev-er did see ran a round Joe Brown's coal mine.

8

The head - light passed at six o'-clock, the cab come by at nine. -

2. The prettiest girl I ever saw was on that train and gone;
Her eyes were blue, her cheeks were brown and her hair it hung way down.
3. That train it wrecked at the four mile hill, and killed my Evaline.
Her head was found in the drivin' wheel, po' body ain't never been seen.
4. The longest day and the leongest night was the day Evaline died.
I walked the track the whole day long, hung down my head and cried.
5. The long steel rail and the short cross tie, they carried me away.
Was transportation brought me here, but I'll make it home some day.
